OWNERS PLAN EXPANSION OF NURSING HOME

Owners of Cameron Nursing Home, 700 E. 11th St., have announced a 5,000 square foot addition to the present structure, making rest home facilities for 41 patients.

More than doubling the present space, the new wing will run north from the present building and front on E. 12th St.

Officials said there will be one-story facilities for 21 additional patients in the fire - proof haydite building with three baths, a livingroom, a kitchen, diningroom, laundry and supply rooms and a solar screen front.

Present kitchen facilities will be enlarged, and a nurses station will be constructed between the new and present facilities. And a patio will be added in the expansion program.

An office for the operation will be placed in the new structure. Total size when completed will be 8,850 square feet, officials said.

The present facility was opened over a year ago at its capacity of 20 patients. About 500 people attended an open house at the early 1962 opening.

Owners are Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Folchinsky.

Lions To Conduct Annual Bulb Sale

The Cameron Lions Club will hold their annual Light Bulb sale May 6 and 7 according to Ed Laywell, sale chairman.

The club will sell 75 and 100 watt bulbs to the citizens of Cameron. The sale will start each night at 6 p. m.

The money collected will go to a fund which will help the blind, those in need of glasses and civic projects.

SAPP - SCHIGUT MOVE UP WITH CofC CHANGES

Forrest Sapp was named second vice - president and John Schigut first vice - president Friday by Cameron Chamber directors following acceptance of attorney Jack Prescott's letter of resignation.

Dist. - County Atty. Prescott, also first vice - president of the Chamber of Commerce, had announced two weeks ago his plans to move to Temple to open a private law practice.

Sapp is a new director on the Chamber board this year. And Schigut moved up from second vice president.

Directors also endorsed a "Town and Country Fair" to replace Cameron's Western Week, which had been held in conjunction with the Cameron Horse Show for four years. Cameron's horse shows will be held on dates during June and July this summer.

Other Chamber programs coming soon include the May 11 poultry show, scheduled for the McLane Company lot on the Milam Court-house square.

Also approved was a $9,200 Cameron Chamber budget following reading of the annual budget audit committee report.

Replacing Prescott on the Board will be William F. Arthur.

David Walston Injured In Crash

David Walston, 19, is in good condition after suffering serious injuries in a head on auto - pickup truck collision early Sunday morning.

Walston was a passenger in a pickup truck driven by Ernest Brod of Cameron when it collided with a car driven by Bernard Lee Galloway, of Fort Hood, according to Patrolman Durwood Kennedy.

Walston suffered severe head injuries, facial cuts and loss of blood. The accident happened on a curve one - half mile south of Pettibone on FM 486.

Milam Grand Jury Hearing Charges

A Milam District grand jury was hearing several cases Wednesday at prestime at Milam Courthouse.

Dist. Atty. Jack Prescott was presenting informations to the 15-man panel and interviewing witnesses for the grand jurors.

Two To Retire, One Resigns

68 Teachers Re-employed

Sixty - eight teachers and coaches have been rehired by the Cameron School Board, according to Supt. Charles Zeigler.

Faculty contracts were renewed Thursday night following installation of re - elected board members K. D. "Buster" Griffin and Alton Fuchs.

Board officers re - elected were: Dr. Gus Evans president; Niley J. Smith vice - president; and Dr. S. H. Richardson secretary.

Two teachers will retire under the school's mandatory retirement at age 66. They are Mary Lawrence and Dora Jeter, both veteran elementary teachers.

And Rae V. Selman, teacher at O. J. Thomas, submitted his resignation.

Survey Says 1.9% Decline In Census

Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas reported a 1.9 per cent decrease in population in Milam County from 1960 to 1962 this week in a survey of all 254 Texas counties.

All bordering counties except Bell County experienced a decrease in population ranging from a minus 1 per cent to a minus 2.9 per cent.

Bureau research estimates show Milam with a population of 21,413 through April, 1962. The 1960 Milam federal census was 22,263. The 1961 estimate was 21,662 people.

Largest estimated increase was Bell County's 5.1 per cent gain to 104,276 people compared to 94,097 in 1960.

Largest estimated loss was Falls County with a 2.9 per cent decrease, showing a 20,080 estimated population compared to 21,263 in 1960.

Between the two extremes ranged all other neighboring counties and the three largest population centers in Central Texas - Brazos, Travis and McLennan Counties.

Milam County is the central point in the 10 county area.

By county, the survey showed: Burleson - 2.6 per cent; Falls - 2.9 per cent; Lee - 1.4 per cent; Milam - 1.9; Robertson - 2.1; Williamson - 1.0 and Bell plus 5.1.

The three largest Central Texas counties showed the following: Brazos 0.4; McLennan 0.3 and Travis 3.2 per cent increase.

Milam County's 1.9 per cent decrease struck the average of the six substantially agriculture counties.

Milam County's population in 1950 was 23,585. The advent of Alcoa's Rockdale Works in the early 1950's offset a decline in farm population. Cameron, Rockdale particularly and Thorndale all increased population.

But in the other bordering counties, except Bell County, percentage of population decreased was much greater than for Milam County.

Bell County's rapid growth is attributable to growth of Fort Hood, which also caused an estimated 12 per cent increase in population in the two - year period in Coryell County.

"The Dybbuck" has been performed 175 times in Europe, and was presented at Carnegie Hall as a suite in 1946.

Singer, in addition to being a conductor and composer, is an accomplished violinist and pianist. In 1968, he won the composers' concert sponsored by the Texas Composers' Association for this "Sonatina for Piano." In 1962, he won again for his "Suite for Young People."

Henderson To Resign

Council Sworn, Cites Smith

Three councilmen took new oaths of office Tuesday and a resolution commending the work of defeated councilman John A. Smith was approved at City Hall.

Incumbents E. L. Wied and Starr Hickman and first - term J. C. "Jimmy" Marek took the oath of office read by Mayor Coleman Duncum.

Following the brief ceremony, Mayor Duncum read a resolution commending the work of Smith as a city councilman from 1960 to April 1963. The resolution was sent to Smith, who lost two weeks ago by a 25 - vote margin.

The Council also accepted the resignation of City Judge John B. Henderson, Jr., who has been appointed successor to County - Dist. Atty. Jack Prescott. Henderson noted in his letter he was resigning effective June 1 and was submitting his letter early to allow time for the Council to find a replacement.

In other action, the Council heard an appeal from Mrs. Joe Matula, 706 North Milam, who seeks a widening and paving of the street in front of her house. She told the Council in her second appearance before the group that a total of 51 feet of right - of - way had been deeded for a street through there.

But other neighbors did not favor the widening project, City Atty. Charlie Smith said, and that there was a strong possibility such a project would cut off much of her present yard. Further consultation between her and the city's legal counsel was advised.

Also approved was a routine acknowledgement of a proposed Durie subdivision of 36 acres.

City Public Works Supt. J. B. Earle reported that basework on Sixth Street from Jefferson Avenue to the Southern Pacific Railroad was completed.

And work was continuing at Austin and Twelfth and on Fourteenth between Jackson and Maxwell Avenue. He also said Sixth Street improvements are being planned between Fannin to Jackson Avenue.

And penetration estimates are being made for Fifth Street to Lamar Avenue on SH 36.

Routine work was reported by Water Supt. Alvin Heft.

Other speakers included Richard Preston, executive director of American Industrial Development Council; M. L. Powers, director, University of Oklahoma Business and Industrial Services; C. Truett Smith, Wylie bank president; and Earl Rudder, president of Texas A & M College.

Preston and Shivers addressed the group on trends in industrial and agricultural development respectively. Smith spoke on "Local and State Industrial Financing."

Powers' talk was on "Human Relations and Communications in Industrial Development."

Three workshop sessions were held simultaneously on "Prospect Solicitation," "Shell Buildings for Industry" and Planning a Local Agricultural Development Program.

President Rudder addressed the seminar group following lunch on the "Role of Education in the Developing Economy."

A&M Grads Plan Annual Muster

Former A & M College students in Milam County Monday will gather at First Methodist Fellowship Hall to attend the 59th anniversary of Texas A & M men.

It will be one of 500 similar musters held all over the world where Texas A & M College former students pay homage to fellow classmates who have passed on and tribute to Texans who fought at the Battle of San Jacinto 126 years ago.

Appearing on the Milam County program are Niley Smith Sr., W. F. Saage, Joco Roberts, H. D. Maxwell, Barry McLerran and Monroe Fuchs, according to Sam S. White, chairman of the April 22 muster program.

The applications may be picked up at the office of Jack Hughes, Yoe principal.

3 CENTERS AWAITING IN NORTH MILAM

The third, final trip through the SOS line Sunday will complete Milam County's part in the area - wide drive to stamp out polio.

Cameron Sabin oral vaccine centers will open at noon and remain open until 5 p. m. at Simon-George Hall, Yoe Gymnasium and O. J. Thomas Gymnasium.

They will be manned by pharmacists, nurses, medical auxiliary, doctors and other volunteer workers. The vaccine, as in the prior two drives, is free if a 25-cent donation is not possible.

Bill Burns, administrator of the North Milam program said that most of the workers who aided in the first two drives will assist once again.

UP TO 15,000 EXPECTED

Combined efforts of North and South Milam centers hope to serve up to 15,000 people, including children, in the final Sunday.

U. S. Health Service officials have cleared the Type III vaccine following investigation of cases attributed to it in Canada and the Midwest.

Type III consists of the same, small, tasteless amount of Sabin vaccine dropped over sugar cubes in a small cup. Children of all ages except new born babies, can take the vaccine as well as adults. The process takes only half a minute.

Other Milam SOS centers, listed completely below, will be schedule in Milam, Rockdale (2), Thorndale, Sharp and Gause.

ADVANCE THANKS

Burns and spokesmen for the Milam Medical Association extended their appreciation in advance for the co - operation assured for Sunday from the experience of the previous two tours last fall.

The one - afternoon SOS Sundays reached up to 80 per cent of Milam population, approaching the point of definite eradication of polio.

Makeups will be held following the SOS drive Sunday at the Milam Health Unit in Cameron and other offices in Rockdale.

Medical officials urged the general public to complete the first mass Milam immunization drive in history the way it started, "A major medical success."

Red Cross Nets $2,523 Thus Far

Red Cross Drive Chairman Forrest Sapp told the Herald Wednesday afternoon that the total collected by the workers thus far is $2,523.43.

He said the Buckholts community was the only one that had not reported in to the drive treasurer, Mrs. Walter Lester.

Sapp urged all those who have not been contacted to give as soon as possible as the goal is close and they would like to reach it if possible.

EASTER EGG HUNT — One of about 100 youngsters from the First Methodist Church discusses the fun of the egg hunt with Oxsheer Smith, 902 North Jackson, whose residence was the scene of the Easter event Saturday afternoon.

3 Million Use Hearing Aids

Today 3,000,000 people use hearing aids. This is four times the number who used them in 1950. Defective hearing is regarded as the nation's No. 1 physical impairment.

Nerve deafness is the principal cause of impaired hearing. This nerve carries words and sounds from the inner ear to the hearing center in the brain. The hearing nerve has about 25,000 endings in the inner ear. Some of the nerves pick up low tones and send to the hearing center, others pick up middle tones, while others pick up high tones. When working proper, the Hearing Nerve sends clear messages that the center has no trouble understanding. However, when the Hearing Nerve weakens, it sends incomplete, indistinct and garbled messages. The Hearing Center has trouble understanding them. Usually the high tones are the first to weaken. This makes it hard to understand women and children's voices, also people will say, "I hear but don't understand," or "People mumble and don't talk plain," or, "Words run together."

Many nerves in our body would deteriorate if not used. If an arm goes to sleep the first thing we do is exercise it; if we didn't it would soon become useless. The same is true with the Hearing Nerve, it will weaken when not in use. It needs exercise to make it work proper. The discovery of the Transistor and its uses in hearing instruments has truly been The Miracle of the Century. By testing a person to find what part of their nerve is not working an Aid can be designed to exercise and stimulate that part of the nerve that is not working. This puts the Hearing Center back to work and improves one's ability to understand clear distinct messages. One should not consider himself deaf, just because his hearing needs a lift. A person isn't regarded blind simply because he uses eyeglasses. We fit many people who only use their aid to exercise and stimulate their Hearing Nerve. These people put them on at home while listening to T. V., and this is enough to keep them stimulated.

THERE IS NO TREATMENT OR SURGICAL OPERATION THAT WILL CURE NERVE DEAFNESS. A small percentage of hearing loss is caused by Conduction Deafness, which affects the three tiny bones in the Middle Ear . . . but not to be confused with Nerve Deafness. Advances in surgical techniques have produced some excellent results in selected cases, from operations for Conduction Deafness. However, for those that do not care to submit to surgery there are Transistor Hearing Aids for Conduction Deafness. Lots of people have had tests for this type deafness, when told they could not have the operation, believed that nothing could be done to help them. This is not true . . . We are fitting people every day with the Transistor Nerve Instrument that were unable to hear with the old type hearing Aids. We have been able to change the tones in hearing aids that people were wearing to give them better hearing. As we said, there are 3 Million people using Aids, that about that many more could be helped if they knew what the discovery of Transistors has done to help the hard of hearing.

Mr. Treadway will hold his regular Hearing Clinic at the new clinic at 102 W. Main in Cameron, Tuesday, April 23rd from 10:00 A. M. to 1:00 P. M.

If you have a hearing problem of any kind, we invite you to come in. We have a staff of experienced Engineers at the Labs available to you through us. We will be happy to give you a complete hearing test at no cost to you. The test will tell if you can be helped. We will come to your home, Rest Home, or Hospital on your request. We can save you over 20 per cent on batteries, repairs, Ear molds and supplies.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

FORD GALAXIE 500 XL SPORTS HARDTOP

YOU'LL KNOW WHY SHE DOESN'T FEEL THE BUMPS...WHEN YOU TEST-DRIVE FORD'S NEW '10,000,000 RIDE

The 1963 Ford gives you a ride every bit as smooth as cars costing hundreds more, and for two reasons: a revolutionary new suspension system . . . and added road-hugging weight.

It took ten million dollars to develop the new Ford ride. We designed a revolutionary new suspension system for the '63 Ford. Where ordinary suspensions move only up and down to absorb road shock, the Ford suspension moves backward as well. In this double-action suspension system, coil springs up front and leaf springs in the rear combine to give you firmness in cornering and a special smoothness over the road.

We added weight, strength and stability. The new Ford is now actually hundreds of pounds more car than any other car in its class. This remarkable weight advantage is in the suspension, frame, and body. And, as you know, this added weight means a more stable ride.

But a solid, road-smoothing ride is only part of Ford's total performance story for 1963. Look how Ford swept the field this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance — the best combination of strength, balance, precision control, braking power and road-clinging suspension — could roll up so many wins.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive a Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery — if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance . . . total performance.

Soil Testing Labs Busy

COLLEGE STATION — Soil sample numbers handled by the three soil testing laboratories operated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at College Station, Seymour and Lubbock set a new record during January and February. W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, said 6,543 soil samples were received during the two months as compared with 4,231 samples for the same period in 1962.

This, Bennett said, indicates the strong and growing interest in soil testing. Samples were submitted, he added, from more than 200 of the State's counties with 16 in the 100 plus group. The top grouping included Bailey, Castro, Fayette, Floyd, Gaines, Gonzales, Hale, Harris, Hockley, Kaufman, La M. B. Lubbock, Milam, Parker, Parmer and Swisher with Hale, Hockley and Parker ranking two and three.

Bennett also reported that 181 samples were submitted from Nevada, 40 from New Mexico, 17 from Mexico, 6 from Arizona and 5 from Utah.

The soil chemist noted that since the initiation of the new soil and water salinity testing service on September 1, 1962, 210 water samples and 154 soil salinity samples had been received. Most of the water samples have been from water to be used for irrigation; however, a few were tested for their suitability for consumption by livestock.

Bennett explained that the Texas A & M Laboratory, where the salinity tests are made, is not equipped to test water for its suitability for domestic use and human consumption. Such samples, he said, should be sent to the State Department.

Cotton Plant Extracts Attract Boil Weevils

COLLEGE STATION — Scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have extracted from the cotton plant a substance that repels boll weevils. It is the third substance extracted from the cotton plant with potential value for controlling the most destructive of all cotton insects, the boll weevil.

The first substances were an attractant that draws weevils to cotton plants and a feeding stimulant which makes the plants appetizing to the insects. The three substances were found by scientists of USDA's Agricultural Research Service working in cooperation with the Mississippi Agricultural Experiment Station at the Boll Weevil Research Laboratory, State College, Miss.

The repellent was discovered in connection with work with the attractant. When the attractant was warmed to room temperature, part of it vaporized or degraded. The part remaining proved repellent to boll weevils. A procedure was then developed for extracting the repellent from cotton squares (flower buds) and seedlings, the same parts of the plant containing the attractant.

The scientists listed these possibilities for the substances. Plant breeders could conceivably develop cotton varieties either with a high content of the repellent so plants would repel weevils or with such a low content of the attractant that the plants would not attract weevils.

Cameron Library Cited In Speech To Rockdale Group

Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey, director of librarians, Texas State Library, cited Cameron as a good example of city tax support to a public library. He spoke to a group of Rockdale High School students who visited Austin recently.

The group visited in Austin to study state government and duties of a librarian and archivist recently. The students, members of the Hi-Li Club, members of the Teen-Age Library Association of Texas Library Association, were visiting Austin because of their interest in their new library.

Dr. Winfrey cited the citizens of the area for supporting a public library.

In Caesar's time, the territory that is now Germany was inhabited by barbarous tribes that originally came from Central Asia.

County Agents Notes...

Cotton Classing Meeting Set

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

A meeting will be held at the Vo-Ag building in Cameron on the night of April 24, at 8 p. m. to discuss the microneir service as related to cotton classes and grades, according to J. B. Russ, officer in charge of cotton classing.

All area farmers, ginners, cotton buyers and others interested in cotton are urged to attend this meeting.

CATERPILLAR WORMS

Tent Caterpillar Worms on Trees may be controlled by spraying the tree with Toxaphene-DDT mixture at the rate of two tablespoons per gallon of water. Malathion used at the rate of one tablespoon per gallon of water will control worms on trees also.

Aphids or plant lice may be controlled by using Malathion or Triphorin at the rate of one tablespoon per gallon of water.

ANTS AROUND THE HOUSE

To control ants inside the home, apply 2 to 3 per cent Chloradane or 0.5 per cent dieldrin household spray where ants are noticed, giving particular attention to drainboards, window sills, door thresholds and pantry shelves. Repeat applications may be necessary to control ants in the home.

Ants outside the home may be controlled by applying a band of insecticidal dust or spray around the foundation wall and treat nests found in the yard.

Use 10 per cent Chloradane, two per cent dieldrin or 5 per cent heptachlor dusts. If an emulsion spray is used, follow directions on label.

Rogers FHA Honors Board, Wives At Dinner Tuesday

ROGERS — The Homemaking Department of Rogers High School with Mrs. Myrtle Wood as head teacher, entertained Tuesday night in the cottage with a dinner honoring the board members and their wives.

The annual informal dinner without program was attended by President and Mrs. C. O. Gunter, vice president and Mrs. Anton Necas, Secretary and Mrs. Clayton D. Clovers, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Psenick, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Waits, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wright, superintendent and Mrs. B. F. Harbour, high school principal and Mrs. J. L. Chervenka.

Mrs. Fontila Holman is the other homemaking teacher. The dinner was placed and the food prepared by girls in the first, second and third year classes. The meal was served by Mary Cross, Pam Gotcher, Sharon Collier, Ann Ward and Pat Harper, who are working on their junior degrees.

36 Traffic Crashes In Cameron Area

BRYAN — Sgt. Paul Allen, Supervisor of the Texas Highway Patrol in the Bryan area released the Brazos, Burleson, Lee, Milam and Robertson Counties rural traffic accident summary for the month of March 1963.

For the month of March 1963, Sgt. Allen's rural traffic accident records show a total of 36 traffic crashes which did not result in any deaths but injured 22 people and the combine property damage total amounted to $20,045.

For the same period Miami County recorded a total of 11 traffic crashes, no deaths, but injury to 8 people with a combined property damage total amounting to $7,515.

CONTINUE METHODS

Producers are urged to continue individual screwworm control measures and to submit samples of all infestations detected to the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation at Mission. Screwworm cases are now being reported and officials feel failure to treat them may hamper the eradication program.

Mrs. Fritz Stoeber entertained the 42 club at her home Tuesday April 16. Refreshments were served after games were played.

Rev. R. Fletcher filled his appointment at Burlington Baptist Church Sunday and Sunday night Easter. He was a dinner guest of Mr. Mrs. Will Stoeber visited Mrs. Otto Kelm.

Texans Battle Odds At San Jacinto

This story came from the May 6, 1923 edition of The Cameron Herald in time for the annual observance of San Jacinto Day. - Ed

A hitherto unpublished account of the battle of San Jacinto written by Lucy A. Erath, daughter of the late Major George B. Erath, soldier and statesman, gives a romantic detail of the struggle for independence not contained in any other account of historians.

Major Erath, personal friend of Gen. Sam Houston, and of Gen. Burleson, has left a heritage to all Texans in this graphic literary production touching the supreme event in the fight for the independence of Texas.

W. T. Hefley, attorney of Cameron, and life member of the Texas State Historical Association, makes public this story of the battle from a current issue of the quarterly as follows:

GENERAL RETREATS

General Houston had retreated from Gonzales to the Colorado River to a place near where Columbus now stands. On the 29th of March about fourteen hundred men were at their place under his command. I had joined Captain Billingsby's company from Bastrop. Burleson's regiment. There was great eagerness among us to fight.

Rogers Trustees OK Election Returns

ROGERS — In regular meeting, the Board of Trustees of Rogers Public Schools canvassed the trustee election returns, finding the unofficial report to be correct, with Edwin J. Psenick being re-elected with 116 votes, Clayton D. Clovers re-elected with 115 votes; Gordon L. Young receiving 56 votes and Jasper Tyler receiving two votes.

The same men were elected to the offices of the Board: C. O. Gunter, president; Clayton D. Clovers, secretary; Anton Necas, vice president.

ght, but in a few days Gen. Houston ordered the retreat to the Brazos River. This caused over four hundred men to leave us. Although we were constantly receiving volunteers, the army did not number but about one thousand at San Jacinto. Seven hundred and eighty fought the battle; the rest were fifteen miles away scouting the baggage at Harrisburg.

About the first of April heavy rains set in, impeding our progress, and for about two weeks we were encamped in the Brazos bottom near where Hempstead now stands while Santa Anna occupied San Felipe, and moved down the river to cross at Fort Bend.

We crossed the Brazos about the fourteenth and travelled on to Harrisburg as rapidly as the roads would permit. Santa Anna with a small portion of his men has really got ahead of us, and was going down the bay in the direction of Galveston. After burning Harrisburg he met at New Washington two vessels carrying supplies for his army. Putting part of these supplies on flatboats and part on several hundred pack mules, he again advanced up the country to meet with us at San Jacinto.

FOUR THOUSAND MEN

Santa Anna had reached Fort Bend with four thousand men and captured the ferry boat without opposition, although a company of Texans was stationed there under Captain Wyth Martin to watch his movements, and Captain Mosely Baker, with a company from our regiment, had followed him from San Felipe; they felt it useless to oppose the superior numbers.

The account then gave details of the maneuverings of both armies and said:

"Both armies apparently went into camp on the battlefield, firing cannon at each other occasionally."

"Apprehension was expressed that General Houston did not intend to fight there, and might retreat further. To such a course general resistance was announced. By his long retreat, Houston had made himself extremely unpopular, especially with the western

Faculty Told In Rogers Schools

ROGERS — The Board of Trustees of the Rogers Consolidated Independent School district has elected the faculty for the 1963-64 school year.

Those re-elected were: J. L. Chervenska, principal of high school and these high school teachers: Wayne Cobb, Miss Pochuntus Culbreth, Charles Conner, Mrs. Fontilla Holman, A. A. Kretschmar, Mrs. Johnnie Martin, J. H. Merka, Mrs. Alta Seay, Mrs. Myrtle Wood.

These elementary teachers: Darwin Schwertner, principal; Mrs. Captolia Akin, Mrs. Lila Baird, Mrs. Selma Cannon, Mrs. Ada Jean Cowen, Mrs. Louis Gunn, Mrs. Imogene Harbour, Mrs. Anna James, Mrs. Lola Sparks, Mrs. Edith Starries, and Mrs. Addie Ward.

The Board accepted resignation previously presented from the following teachers: James A. Lowrance, head coach, science and driver education; Dal Coleman, head coach and social studies; Kenneth Beverly, junior high school coach, assistant high school coach, and social studies.

Also re-elected were Mrs. Ernestine Brown Pride, head teacher and Mrs. Bennie L. Harris, both of Burks Elementary School.

men who in consequence of it had had their property destroyed, houses burned and land devastated."

But by the afternoon of the 21st there was a conviction there would be no further retreat. Burleson, Erath wrote, called a conference of the officers of his regiment to decide whether they should fight then or wait until morning — this apparently being at Houston's request for opinions. The account continued:

READY FOR BATTLE

"In a few minutes Burleson came dashing back to the place, and said: 'Captains, parade your companies. The other regiment has decided to fight immediately. I don't want mine to be a minute behind.'"

I have had occasion to tell this which I have here reported many times when talking of the battle of San Jacinto. I have never heard it disputed. But I have never found any allusion to it such a consultation in my reading of accounts of the battle. It indicated that the fight was brought about by the voice of the army. General Houston has always been accredited with having absolute control within council or advice. I do not know whether he demanded the consultation or sanctioned it, but it shows that he, too, was undecided as to the course of action at the time.

The announcement of the decision to fight acted like electricity. Being ever ready, our lines were formed at once, but in the low ground out of sight of the Mexicans. Perhaps a delay of half an hour occurred till the position was perfected as to rank and number. We deployed on the high ground; first in line was the cavalry on the right, the artillery next, the small detachment of regulars next, the first regiment to which I belonged next and the second regiment companies followed. Descending into a stretch of ground, then marching a small distance two or three hundred yards, to wheel by left into front, which was from the Mexicans, we were ordered to wheel by left into front, which was done, and brought us to the top of the hill.

MEXICANS FIRING
Coming from the front, General Houston came dashing through our lines, the Mexican bullets were flying. The second regiment on our

Last Rites For Louis Hornung

Funeral services for Louis Hornung, 66, were held 2 p. m. Saturday in Lexington at the First Methodist Church. Burial was also in Lexington.

Hornung died in Newton Hospital Thursday afternoon following an illness of the past two years. He was one of the owners of the original Hornung Hatchery, established in 1928.

Always active in business life, he was a rancher in the Lexington community, and as long as his health would permit, he was a member of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Church in Lexington.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. A. G. Elley of Cameron, Miss Emma Hornung of Robstown and Miss Mary Hornung of Lexington; two brothers Otto W. Hornung and John Hornung, both of Lexington; nieces and nephews: Gus and Louis Elley of Cameron, Fredwill Hornung of Cameron, Mrs. Frank Jostes of Tyna, Mrs. Jimmy Hooper of Lexington and Miss Lynn Hornung of Lexington.

Green Funeral Home in Cameron was in charge of arrangements.

left had already joined combat. General Houston cried: "Not a man reinforcement! Not a man reinforcement!" and galloped on, was wounded soon after.

I have said that we knew of the reinforcement. By going up the hill to the thicket where the council took place, we could almost count the Mexicans."

The reinforcement of the Mexicans was a rumor in the Texas lines, Erath wrote, and continued: "It was almost an insult to us to think that we would care for that little bit of misinformation. We would have fought the whole world then. We had been marched from the Guadalupe in a round-about zigzag way through swamps and bogs; we had lived part of the time on half spoiled beef; we had been delayed in getting through the low country; often standing knee-deep in water waiting for baggage wagons to be pulled out; we had even had the experience of having a woman draw a gun on us — some of us — for confiscating her oxen under orders, and we were subjected to all of the military discipline that was ever enforced on troops of any country — standing guard 24 hours out of 48 and not allowed to go to sleep even at the guard fire."

REMEMBER THE ALAMO

General Houston made us a speech at Harrisburg when we started our march to attack the Mexicans; he promised us that we would have full satisfaction for all we had gone through, and he closed his address by saying let your war cry be: "Remember the Alamo!"

As the Mexicans shot high, nearly all the damage done was during the descent of the hill to the Mexican lines. We reserved our fire. It seemed to me that the order to fire was premature, as we were one hundred fifty yards from the Mexicans, I thought. While reloading my gun after my first fire I choked the ball. A young man named Ed Blakey was mortally wounded higher up the hill; he ran along by my side until he fell. I picked up his gun and bag and threw mine away. The whole Mexican line was in full flight by the time I got my second shot. Our men advanced rather in disorder, and driving the Mexicans across the boggy sward where many fell.

Methodist Circles To Begin Study

The Circles of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met in the homes Monday afternoon.

The Perrin Circle met with Mrs. C. A. West, the Henderson Circle with Mrs. Alvin Roberts; and the McCullin Circle with Mrs. Julian Baskin. Thirty attended the three meetings.

Monday the circles will begin a study "Who Cares" by Mrs. W. C. Wallace in the church lounge.

INTRODUCING

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gonzales of Rt. 1, Buckholts, are the parents of a girl, born April 12. She weighed 7 lbs and was named Delores.

Beavers Get New Lease On Life

There's a fashionable trend toward striped, sheared beaver this year and, would you believe it, those eager beavers down Beaver Valley way are actually rejoicing.

Imagine a bunch of luxury-fur animals like this celebrating when American business is predicting that several thousand beaver-type coats, jackets and capes will be purchased for and by the femme fatale during the coming year. They must have an inside tip.

They have, and the information is true. Human ingenuity has now arrived at a point where beaver and practically all the other costly furs can now be copied by man — and made softer and better-wearing than the real McCoy. Particularly significant in this field of development is Dynel, the "gas, air and salt water" acrylic fiber made by Union Carbide. Used either by itself or blended with Orion, it is transformed by a number of the nation's leading textile mills into luxurious deep-pile fur-like fabrics that require experts to tell they didn't come from Beaver Valley, the mink ranch of Seal Island. And the resultant coats have such unusual features as warmth and bulk without weight, and stubborn resistance to even the most miserable winter days.

Yes, and these man-made beavers and other fur-like fabrics are economy-minded too. You've no doubt guessed by now that the coat pictured here is a creation of Dynel and Orion with three-dimensional "Beavallite" striping, but it's a good bet that you wouldn't expect it to sell for around $100, one-fifth the cost of its cousin from the Valley.

Just to complete the picture, here are some man-made names that go with this year's crop of man-made furs: Chinella, Pola Bear, Racuna, Mutation, Rah-con, Normink, Pandora, Mynx, Wink and Beavalon. Take your pick. It's estimated that a million of 'em will be sold this year.

Ingram, Thorpe To Attend Meet

Dennis Ingram of Post 85 and Rodney A. Thorpe of Post 54 both of Cameron, Gene James and Gary Allensworth of Post 51 of Rosebud and Sonnie Williams of Post 314 of Rockdale will be among the 60 Explorers from the Heart of Texas Council who will be delegates to the Region Nine Explorer Conference at Baylor University June 6-9 in Waco.

They will join representatives of units from towns in Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas, parts of Arizona and Arkansas.

"Supersonic Citizenship" will be the theme of the conference as chosen by the steering committee of High School Youth. Discussion groups led by explorers will meet following the keynote presentations by outstanding men in three categories as related to the space age: physically fit, mentally awake and morally straight.

The Explorer Conference Steering Committee agreed that being physically fit, mentally awake and morally straight is as important today as it was at the beginning of the scouting movement.

They will emphasize its application in a supersonic age and discuss related points developed in the "Viewpoint of Youth" at last year's National Delegate Conference.

Highlights of discussion groups will be what explorers can and are doing about "Fit For Tomorrow Plan" challenging Physical Education, keeping informed on Public Affairs, learning about free en-

Band Presents

Concert Tues.

The Yoe High School Band, directed by Francis Cox, presented their annual spring concert in the Yoe Gym Tuesday night. A large crowd attended the musical program.

Presented on the concert were the three contest numbers the band will play at the Regional UIL band contest to be held in Marlin April 27.

A special number by Marcia Schiller, Pat Titsworth and Larry Schiller was a snare drum trio, "We Three". This trio made a first division at the UIL Contest held in Temple last month.

Other numbers presented on the program were "High Society", "Moon River", "Theme From Exodus", "Highlights From Camelot" and "Climb Ev'ry Mountain."

Gallatin-Hicks Vows Read In Austin Sat.

Miss Patricia Louise Gallatin became the bride of Ronald Barker Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Hicks of Sumner Saturday in the Congress Avenue Baptist Church in Austin. The Rev. Gordon B. Bays officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Gallatin of Austin and she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Russell of Yarrington.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white gown of hand-clipped chantilly lace and satin peau de soie. The lace bodice was accented by a jeweled sabrina neckline. Her long sleeves tapered to points at her wrists. The full skirt was draped and ornamented by handmade lace roses. The skirt back was a cascade of wide lace ruffles, falling into a chapel train. Her halfhat was of lace trimmed with a large lace rose, encircled with ropes of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a single white orchid on a Rainbow Bible.

Mrs. Robert G. Loving was matron of honor. Miss Carolyn Payton and Miss Janet Helf were bridesmaids. They were gownned in blue silk organza. Bestman was Lannie Hicks of Sumner. Groomsmen were Rodney Caldwell and David Rainey. Ushering were Robert Loving and Travis Smith.

The bride, a graduate of Travis High School in Austin, is a sophomore at North Texas State University in Denton. The bridegroom is a senior at NTSU and attended Paris Junior College.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Denton.

Those attending the wedding from Yarrington were the Russells and Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Griffin, Lynda, Ken and Becky.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wiggs and children are vacationing in Florida this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Dunston spent the Easter holidays in Atlanta, Georgia with their children.

Yoe Stand 1-1 In District

YOEMEN SMASH RATTILERS 25 - 5 IN DIST. GAME

The wind was high and the number of walks was higher as the Yoemen took a top-sided 25-5 victory over the Navasota Rattlers Tuesday night in a District 1AAA ball game.

The game was called in the fifth due to the ten run ahead rule. Playing time was 2 hours 35 minutes.

Winning pitcher, Larry Paul Manley, got two of the Yoemen's eight hits in three attempts. Both came in the second inning as he banded out a double and single.

John A. Smith had two hits also as he singled and hit a grand slam home run over the left field fence. He was credited with five RBIs.

Billy Don Davenport had a double for his only hit of the game. Singles came to Bob Dymke, James Michalka and Edmund Michalka.

Starting pitcher Meicher suffered the loss for the Rattlers. He got the Rattlers' only hit, a single.

The Yoemen drew 15 walks and the Rattlers drew 14 free trips.

Larry Plenti started on the mound but was relieved after 1 1/3 innings by Manley. Manley was catching and Coach Raymond Bennett moved Dymke to the catcher spot.

Five of the Yoemen had five trips to the plate in the four and a half innings. The Yoemen stole 15 bases including home plate steals by Laffere and Manley.

Upcoming Ball Games Set For Yoe

The Yoemen put their one - one record in the line Friday night as they face the Hearne Eagles in a district baseball game to be played on Cameron Field at 7:30 p. m.

The Hearne team is a strong team and is one of the leaders of the district race.

Then on April 23rd the team will journey to A & M Consolidated to take on the Tigers.

Volleyball Team

Takes Second Win In Temple League

The Cameron volleyball team edged out the Mama Moore's Boys a volleyball team of the Temple Jr. College Basketball players, two games to one last Thursday.

It was the second win the local team as they took the place of a team that had dropped out of the league. Their record now stands at 2-2. The two losses came as the team they replaced did not play and had to forfeit the first two games.

This week they go against the Heights Baptist Church team. Game time is 7 p. m. Thursday.

On the 24th they will play the Founders, a team much in contention for the league championship.

BOOSTER CLUB TO MEET MON. NITE

The Cameron Booster Club will hold a special meeting Monday April 22 at the Yoe High Agricultural Building at 7:30 p. m. according to John Henderson, president.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the plans for a Spring Sports Banquet for the members of the basketball, track and baseball teams.

An interesting program is being planned for the banquet and he urged all the members to be present for the Monday night meeting to plan the banquet.

Black Bass Is Cause Of Spring Fishing Fever

The largemouth black bass is often the principal cause of spring fishing fever. Fishermen seem to find the small black bass near the top of the water, while the larger fish are nearer the bottom.

Ladies Tourney Is Red Hot As It Nears End

At the two - thirds marks the Cameron Women's Bowling Association Tournament is a hot one with the winner to be named Thursday night when the remainder of the ladies will bowl.

At the present time, according to Jody Pernice, secretary, the lead in the doubles is held by Betty Angell and Lillie Jo Zalesky with a 1214 and Floye Gilliland and Ann Caffey with the same score.

Judy Mullendore is in the first place with a 649. Second is Sue Whiteley with a 646 and third is Nona Smith with a 621.

In the all events division the leaders are chosen by the total scratch pinfall in the team, singles and doubles. The association is divided into four classes according to averages.

Floye Gilliland (140 - 153 average) leads in class A (129 - 139) Betty Angell is top sixth at 1439. In class C (120 - 128) Sue Whiteley with 1005 with a 1341. And in class D (100 - 118) Nona Smith is tops with an 1125.

But the final standings won't be known until late Thursday night and it's still anybody's title.

ROCKDALE USES BIG 4TH TO DOWN CAMERON 11 - 3

The Rockdale Tigers used a big fourth inning to override the Cameron Yoemen 11-3 in the district baseball opener for both teams last week.

Cameron started off in the lead as Rockdale scored one on Ronnie Brannon's double and Dickie Summer's single.

The Yoemen started as Laurence Laffere hit a double and Larry Paul Manley hit a double and walked and John A. Smith doubled scoring Laffere and Manley.

The only other Yoemen run came in the second inning when Laffere hit a home run with no one on base. The Rockdale team had 11 hits for 11 runs and losing pitcher Bob Dymke struck out 11 Tigers.

The Yoemen had six hits with Laffere getting two, Smith, one, Manley one, Dymke one and James Michalka one.

Bass Deliveries Are Underway From Fish Hatcheries

Bass production at the Game and Fish Commission Hatcheries is in full swing. Many thousands of young bass are being delivered to public waters now. Deliveries to private lake and pond owners will commence at a later date.

If you have requested fish from the State Fish Hatcheries you will receive a post card from the fish hatchery superintendent, notifying you when and where to pick up your fish. You are urged to meet the truck promptly because fish deliveries are made on a tight schedule and only about thirty minutes are required to distribute fish at any one stop.

Lack of rainfall throughout Region II has caused many private ponds and lakes to go dry. If your lake or pond has dried up and you have already requested fish, please notify the hatchery superintendent by post card that the fish are not needed at this time. Notification should be mailed to the hatchery superintendent immediately after you receive his card telling you when to pick up your fish. This will save a trip for a number of young fish and allow them to be placed where they are needed.

sports herald

By James Hollas

A robin is a good sign of spring, but a surer sign is that of Cameron boat owners scraping, sanding and painting their crafts for the coming summer of fun on the lake.

And some of the more adventurous souls have already spent a couple of Sundays on the lake. Some as early as the last of March.

Quite a few boating fans were on Lake Belton Sunday as they relaxed on the sunny Easter holiday. The water was a mite cold but this didn't keep the boaters or skiers away.

Maybe it was the feeling of the warm sun after you got out of the water that made the skiers want to get in the water.

And perhaps this is one of the major reasons that has put boating into a wide first place lead in participation sports. Another reason for the upsurge to over 36 million fans is the sleek, new boats and motors which move faster and faster giving more enjoyment to the sport.

Cameronites can be found Sundays and holidays on Lakes Belton, Buchanan, Whitney and others. The closest is Lake Belton about 50 miles away.

But in the next few years this will change as the Laneport Dam and Reservoir come into existence, Laneport is a new word for the boaters but it will be only 25 miles from Cameron giving the water fans a new outlet for their boating.

The dam has been approved by the Brazos River Authority along with two other smaller dams upstream on the San Gabriel River. All that is needed now is the final planning and the inclusion of the project in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers' budget.

As soon as this is done the Laneport project, slowed by various issues for the last 15 years, will be started.

The project will give Cameron a lake only three miles from the

It's Easy . . .

Water Skiing Is A Fine Sport

By James Hollas

It looks so easy . . . the skier is in the water, the boat starts up and he rises out of the water with ease.

Along the water, the skier skims, moving fast and enjoying it to the fullest.

But then it's your time to try. Bravely you strap on the life belt and get into the boat to get away from the trees and stumps.

Then it's time to start. You throw out the rope and prepare to hit the water. The big toe goes in quickly and comes out a lot faster. You glance at it and it is a bit blue. Then is when you decide that the stars are not right for you to get started skiing.

But a quick assist from the boat driver sends you sprawling into the air and you pray you don't hit an "ice berg" on the impact. You don't and the water is chilly but the driver, from his nice dry boat, tells you that you will get used to it.

And you do. About that time he tosses you a ski. You grab it and he tosses another. You grab it and lose the first one. Finally you corral the two and try to put them on.

After struggling and gulping mouthfuls of water you get one on. You grab for the other and start to put it on. You get it almost on and lose your balance in the water and do a beautiful underwater flip losing the skis.

Finally, both are in place and the rope is just out of reach. You grab for it and do another flip . . . lose a ski.

The boat driver laughs as if he hadn't seen anything so funny since Martin and Lewis broke up the crowds.

So you get the ski on and the rope in hand. And you lose your balance again. You know that it was the wave made by the fishermen about a 100 yards to your right.

Now you are set and ready to go. You are in the crouching position and the boat starts to pull. You start out of the water and try to stand up. Only you can't hold on as the boat moves on and you seem glued. You hit . . . BLAM. He circles and brings you the rope and another try. This time you are going to get up and go.

Ponder, Provasek, McGoldrick In Meet

Included in the regional meet at Brenham this week will be Melvin Provasek and Earl McGoldrick as they placed first in Senior boys tennis.

Dickie Ponder will also be in the golf tournament as he placed second in the meet held in A & M Consolidated.

Pam Neely placed first in the junior girls tennis but will not be in the meet as the junior division does not have a regional playoff.

Wilson Issues Call For Ball Managers

Managers are still needed for the baseball program in Cameron according to Bassel Wilson, president of the organization.

He also said that the boys would be signing up next week and the managers and officials would meet at the Texan Cafe Friday night, April 26 to elect officers and form the leagues.

He said that four to six managers are needed and he urged the men interested in baseball and the boys to call him for information.

Pam Neely Takes First In Tennis

In last week's Herald, an article on the Interscholastic League contestants and winners listed Pam Neely as a fourth place winner in junior girls singles at the meet at A & M College.

Miss Neely placed first in junior girls singles. She won her matches over Caldwell and A & M Consolidated.

Easter Dressed In Black . . .

Easter, a time of rejoicing, was a solemn scene in Portsmouth, N. H., where the families of the 129 victims of the submarine "Thresher" mourned their sorrowful loss.

Inquiry continues into the cause of the sub's demise. And search ships continue to seek the exact location of the sunken vessel.

It is the largest loss of personnel in a peace-time sea disaster.

Family of the crew wore mourning black rather than the brighter colors of Easter.

Perhaps we will never know the exact cause of the ship's loss. Surface observers heard over a telephone a crumbling sound as the sub tried to regain the surface. They said it was similar to sound made by a ship breaking up underwater, a familiar sound to submariners in World War II.

It was a tragic incident and is reminding of the dangers awaiting service people even in peace-time.

Billy Sol Saga Muted . . .

Little more than a year ago Texas promoter Billie Sol Estes burst upon the front pages of every daily newspaper in the country.

This week he was sentenced for mail fraud and conspiracy on five counts.

It was a long step for the wheeler dealing West Texan. It followed conviction in state courts for mortgage manipulation.

Psychologists and psychiatrists will ponder the motivation of a man like Billy Sol for a long time.

At 37, when everything broke against him, he had apparently amassed a $24 million fortune.

Observers have already said he could easily have applied his talents over a longer period of time and come finally to an equal financial success.

It didn't seem to be just another "get rich quick" career. When all the facts are known it may prove out that he thought more of doing things illegally than he ever would have by convention.

Who can say what motivates such a clever man? It is society's loss that such talent turns the devious route when so much more can be accomplished another way.

Throughout the whole Estes scandal, Billy Sol remained silent. That silence is perplexing, leaving Estes as complex as his agriculture dealings.

Scandal Strikes Again In Texas

By Vern Sanford
AUSTIN Scandal has struck again in Texas. This time on the Railroad Commission.

Revelation by the Dallas Morning News that Commissioner William J. Murray had grossed some $285,000 from oil investments in earnings from a Throckmorton County lease caused the commissioner to resign his post.

Question was a matter of ethics... whether or not it was proper for a public official to make investments in an industry over which he exercised control, in whole or part.

Murray's answer was that he grew up in the oil fields, was educated in petroleum engineering and it was the only business in which he had any practical experience.

He admitted his investments and pointed out that they were a matter of record, in his own name, and he had nothing to hide. He stated that he resigned his post as a commissioner because he felt that "harmful publicity" might lessen his effectiveness.

Murray hinted that the investigation into his past investments was prompted by his refusal to call off the East Texas slant - hold, well-drilling investigations, in which he played an active part.

Murray's attorney, Les Proctor, submitted the former RR commissioner's personal financial records to Travis County District Attorney Tom Blackwell for checking. They are being examined by Blackwell, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

State law provides for removal from office any public official the Code of Ethics. Since Murray resigned that question now has become moot. All that remains is the matter of determining whether any civil or criminal statute has been violated.

Proctor says none has been.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED
Gov. John Connally accepted Murray's resignation with the comment that "It is regrettable for all of Texas that documented facts made public within the past few days indicated a question of propriety of legality of his outside business transactions in view of his position of authority on the commission."

"Public officials have a sacred public trust. It is imperative to continue confidence in our form of government that their conduct in office be beyond a shadow of a doubt. Anything else undermines the confidence of the people in responsibility and integrity in government."

INVESTIGATION PROPOSED

In the House of Representatives, Rep. George Hinson of Mineola introduced a resolution asking for a thorough study of the sweeping powers of the Railroad Commission by the Texas Legislative Council.

Resolution received prompt committee approval and was sent immediately to the House floor.

Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston gained permission of the House to introduce a bill to tighten regulations prohibiting public officials from participating in any private enterprises which might be in conflict with their public duty.

Eckhardt said his bill would amend the Code of Ethics and clarify it. It also would include a section providing that no public official or member of the Legislature could appear before any state board or commission where the office - holder had private interests that might be affected by the agency's action.

HOUSE PROBERS

House State Affairs Committee recommended adoption of a resolution by Rep. Rufus Kilpatrick of Beaumont that would establish a general investigating committee.

Normally one acts only between sessions of the Legislature.

Rep. Ben Jarvis of Tyler said Speaker Byron Tunnell is interested in fact action on the Kilpatrick resolution, which would give the authority.

Rep. Horace Houston, Republican member from Dallas, opposed the resolution and asked for a postponement to study it. He said he once served on such a committee, and "no good has come from general committee investigations." Later Houston changed this statement and agreed that investigating committees do "throw a white light into some dark shadows."

APPROPRIATIONS

A record $31,900,000 spending program - the general appropriation for the next biennium - went to a conference committee following rejection by the House of Senate amendments.

Motion not to concur in Senate changes was made by Rep. W. S. Heatley of Paducah, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

MORE TAXES

Some $43,000,000 in additional revenue would be gained during the next two years by adoption of a House Revenue and Taxation Committee substitute for House Bill 106.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, chairman of the subcommittee that revised the proposed tax law to comply with Governor Connally's program, said the bill as now drawn would incorporate a one - year extension of the state franchise tax to April 30, 1965. This would net the state $11,200,000. Repeal of the exemption of outer clothing under $10 would get $20,400,000. Bringing motor vehicles under the sales tax would provide $6,100,000. Other minor changes would round

LENDING

All Texans were invited to appear and testify about the so-called "loan shark" legislation.

Enough Texans appeared to make it a three - hour session with the House Banks and Banking Committee. There were two major points of disagreement. One - the insurance provisions of Senate Bill 15 (passed by the Senate). And two the maximum loan to be made for act, and thus be allowed to charge more than 100 percent interest.

Witnesses representing the insurance companies generally protested that the new commissioner, to be called for under the act, would have too much power. Especially over rates.

On the maximum loan proposition, opinions varied widely. Bill specifies $1,500. Some witnesses would like to lower it to $300. Others thought it should be raised to $3,000 or more.

HAMMER GUARD

Rifles, especially carbines, have projecting hammers that are apt to wear holes in gun cases.

Such holes are unsightly, expensive and unnecessary.

A one - inch piece of small rubber tubing makes an excellent hammer guard. It can be removed instantly by a flip of the thumb, should an emergency arise.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Fuch's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Vanicek and children and her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Schiller and son all of Temple.

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Says He'd Rather Have Federal

Help In The Country Than The City

Dear editor:

It's been so long since the big city newspapers and magazines have exercised themselves over the farm problem that I had the feeling something was afoot, and it is.

According to an article in a newspaper I found out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday where it had blown up against a fence and which I removed at once before the whole thing blew over. I'm no engineer but I know what a few more pounds of stress can do to a fence of mine - big cities are seeking 375 million dollars in federal grants to help them finance transportation systems for commuters.

As I understand it, so many people work in cities the streets won't hold all their cars and they have to use trains and buses, but the trains and buses are losing money and their equipment is dilapidated so naturally the only thing to do is to turn to Washington for money to make up the difference. Cities may denounce farmers for doing this, but they know a good idea when they see it.

I can't get any big cities to agree with me, but clearly the trouble is that we've got a surplus of cities. Marginal cities, I guess you'd call them, like marginal farmers.

It looks to me like any city which is so big it can't get its people to and from the working areas every day, is simply too big. In reverse, it's like the farmer who's too small. Both are uneconomic.

Now with the farmer, the city answer has always been, let him give up unprofitable farming and move to town, but it's hard to say that if a city is too big, let it close up and move to a smaller place. You can say it, but it hardly makes sense.

What cities need actually is either wider streets, narrower cars, fewer people, but nobody seems to be making any progress in any of these directions.

The way it looks to me, big cities don't want the Federal government helping farmers in the country, they want them to move to town and then help them there.

Personally, if it's all right with Washington, I'd rather have the help where I am and avoid all that traffic. It's easier, more comfortable, and you can do it in the shade.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Destroyer's Spirit Fails To Die

The Cameron's death did not end her history, for before she was scrapped, her log and the badge of the Clan Cameron were removed from the ship. These were presented to Cameron, Texas, at a festive ceremony on the Yoe High Athletic Field on September 26th, 1950. The platform was decorated with flowers and both the British and the United States flags. People from all over the county came to hear the distinguished dignitaries who had come from both the British government and the United States government. British Consul General of Texas and New Mexico, James Thynne Henderson, came from Houston to make the presentation. Mr. Henderson stressed the binding ties and the common interests of the Britishers and the badge he said that "it was carried proudly by the ship which bore the name of your city and at the same time the name of one of the Scottish clan It was your ship."

Lewis Shoe Store Wins Certificate At New York Luncheon

NEW YORK — A Certificate of Distinction was awarded to Lewis Shoe Store, of Waco, in the Brand Name Retailer - of - the Year Awards Competition, Shoe Stores category. The award was presented by Brand Names Foundation, sponsors of the annual competition, at a luncheon held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Americana Hotel, New York City.

Since 1934, Lewis Shoe Store's policy has been to consider nationally advertised brand name merchandise a "must", according to Joe H. Lewis, who runs the shoe store.

Since Lewis Shoes opened, it has grown steadily. There are now seven stores, with plans for several more. Lewis Shoes' expanding reputation has been built on the company's slogan, "Shoes that fit in Brands you know."

Lewis comments on his store's award, "It was a research study by Texas University that first decided me on using brand names. But after stocking them, and seeing them move off my shelves, my own research, in the form of added sales and satisfied customers, is conclusive proof of the superiority of manufacturers' national brands."

Lewis was born and raised in the food business, but when he was starting out, he went to work free for a shoe store to gain experience in the shoe retailing business.

Awards in this fifteenth annual competition were given to 114 firms were presented their awards representing 40 to 50 states, and the District of Columbia.

Top executives of the winning firms were presented their awards by Frank R. Armor, Jr., president of H. J. Heinz Co., Pittsburgh, and chairman of the board of directors of the Foundation; and Carlton M. Fishel, vice president of Trifari, Krossman and Fishel, and chairman of the executive committee of the board, at a gala Brand Name Retailer - of - the Year Awards luncheon, held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Americana Hotel. Master of Ceremonies for the event was Arthur Godfrey.

marks and read the telegrams which had been exchanged ten years earlier. W. T. Haines, Superintendent of the Cameron schools, accepted the badge and the log as custodian of valuables for citizens and school children of Cameron. He emphasized the importance of the friendship between Great Britain and America and the significance of the gift from that foreign power to the city of Cameron.

Captain John Holmes of Washington, D. C. British attaché, told the story of how the sea lanes were kept open during the war with the help of the old destroyers. If the sea lanes had been closed, the British people could not have survived, for often they had only enough supplies to last only a few days.

Captain Leonard Mewhinney, a native of Milam County, was also present as a representative of the United States Navy. He came at the request of Mr. J. E. Johnson, who wanted a man of equal rank to Captain Holmes.

During the course of the ceremony, Mr. Johnson presented James Thynne Henderson, Mrs. J. T. Henderson and Captain Holmes with handmade membership scrolls as honorary citizens of the state of Texas.

Thus ended the official negotiations between the city of Cameron, Texas, and the British government. It was by no means wiped from the memory of the Cameronites. The badge of the Clan Cameron which was on the ship H. M. S. Cameron during World War II still remains in the C. H. Yoe High School in Cameron, Texas, as an everlasting reminder of the efforts and success of Great Britain.

Jehovah's Witnesses

Hold Assembly

In Temple Sunday

Fred Starnes, presiding minister of the Cameron Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses reported a large crowd of around 600 at the three-day Bible assembly of the Witnesses held in Temple at the Municipal Auditorium.

H. Z. Fetzik, Watchtower representative spoke to the assembly Sunday. Speaking of Christendom's failure to represent God's Word, Fetzik cited the rapid growth of Communism since World War II as a major cause of the present fears.

The convention closed its sessions with the Sunday afternoon program featuring a talk by H. J. Lackey, convention manager on "How to Keep Delinquency Out Of Your Home."

in securing liberty and freedom just as Captain Ewen Cameron strove for liberty and freedom of the Texans in the early days of the Texas Republic.

Information for this story was acquired from the files of old Cameron newspapers, interviews with Rotarians Dr. C. G. Swift, J. E. Johnson, Bill Burns, letters and history books, Cameron City Council minutes and other resource material listed in the bibliography of Miss Bowman's paper: "H. M. S. Cameron."

WHEN PLANNING FAMILY BUDGETS

In preparing the family financial budget it is important to allot sums to the different items in direct relation to their importance, and to make sure that we do not let over indulgence influence us in our planning.

Also, in budgeting the hours of the week, month and year for the building of a rich, well rounded life we must not be niggardly in the portion of time we allot to the Church — here our spiritual lives are to be trained and nurtured. The oft quoted statement that "we get out of anything in proportion to what we put into it," certainly holds true for the building of a faith as much as it does for material things.

If we give freely of our attendance and service to the church we will rejoice and be rewarded in leading peaceful, worthwhile lives. We will draw from our Church in proportion to what we give it.

"Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" 1 Corinthians 3:11.
